

Arthur Cluster
Technical Services Committee
Using capital letters in titles:

On the fly records, order records (brief, non OCLC), and course reserve records should have the all text capitalized. This will make nonpermanent records easier to spot when in staff modes. Short permanent records or records that are created according to AACR2 should use AACR2 capitalization to be consistent with other bibliographic records.