Introductions

Brief History of MOBIUS

Assessment of MOBIUS' Current Organizational and Financial Position

Discussion of Vision Statement

A redefined and restructured MOBIUS should include:

- Expanded opportunities for membership from all types of libraries and cultural heritage institutions
- Improved opportunities for cost-effective sharing of resources statewide and regionally
- Increased purchasing power of an expanded membership
- Increased visibility and advocacy with funding sources
- Greater capacity for innovation
- Expanded opportunities for continuing library education and training
- Extended support for libraries and librarians as change agents within their communities and institutions
- Strengthened access to progressive and thought-provoking library leadership
- Broader networking and collaborative opportunities between organizations of dissimilar size and structure but with similar mission
